

QUALITY POLITICS

The Management of LABORATORIOS FORENQUI, S.A.U. wants to formally express with this declaration, the product quality and safety policy established for this Company, in accordance with the criteria established in ISO 9001: 2015 and IFS HPC, as well as with all the legal and regulatory requirements that apply in their production and marketing.

LABORATORIOS FORENQUI, S.A.U. Founded in 1987, it is a company specialized in products to perfume the environment, design, manufacture and marketing of cosmetic products. The growing evolution of our company has led us to assume new commitments and challenges for the process.

Aware of the need to conserve the environment and to provide safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work-related injuries and health deterioration; LABORATORIOS FORENQUI SAU, includes within its business strategy, a commitment to its customers and to society, adapting its processes to environmental regulations and safety and health, which is applicable and demonstrate that it is possible to combine Technological progress with respect for the environment, through the need to conserve and protect the environment, and prevent pollution, promote the sustainable use of natural resources, with the desire to live in harmony with the environment around us.

In LABORATORIOS FORENQUI, S.A.U. our main objective is to achieve the full satisfaction of our customers and the final consumer by offering safe and quality products.

- ✓ Achieve full satisfaction of our customers and final consumers, adapting our products and services to their needs and expectations.
- ✓ Enforce the legislation, regulations and others that were applicable to us, related to quality, environment, safety and health work, applying legal compliance to the activities that the company develops and the requirements required by our customers, including beyond the legal minimums that are economically and technologically viable.
- ✓ Establish the necessary means to publicize and explain to the employees the content of the Company's Policy, programs and objectives. Promote training and awareness actions for workers in order to improve their performance within the organization, and ensure involvement in meeting the objectives and goals set.
- ✓ Periodically establish programs, objectives and goals that guarantee compliance with the policy requirements and continuously improve the effectiveness of the management system.
- ✓ Continuous improvement should be present in all processes, developing corrective, preventive and improvement actions necessary to avoid the reappearance of internal and external problems.
- ✓ Provide the necessary resources, both personnel and infrastructure, ensuring the availability of machinery and equipment for the development of processes.
- ✓ Enforce the requirements established by the client, both in safety, quality, legality, development of the process, as well as compliance with product specifications.

The Management extends this commitment to all employees, as well as to those who act on behalf of LABORATORIOS FORENQUI, SAU, and communicates it to all its interested parts, so that they comply with the guidelines of this policy, which will be periodically reviewed in order to ensure that they are always appropriate to the organization's activities.

In Picassent, 23rd September, 2019

Mr. Jose Luis José Cháfer
Manage